

Member Benefits

International Recognition

As a member of the IFSWF, voluntary application provides partners with assurance about governance structures and investment practices.

Networking

IFSWF provides platform for building relationships between individuals across business functions in member institutions.

Peer Learning

IFSWF provides a range of in-person and online opportunities to discover and compare best practices from their peers across a wide range of investment and operational issues.

Contact us for Information